

FSU CENTER FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS PRESENTS:
BEYOND GUANTANAMO

EXPERT PANEL TO TACKLE TOUGH NATIONAL SECURITY QUESTIONS, OFFER PLANS FOR MOVING FORWARD

Eight years after the 9-11 terrorist attacks, the U.S. is at a crossroads insofar as how it will hold and prosecute Guantanamo detainees who stand accused of terrorism-related crimes. The forum will address issues relating to the feasibility of relocating Guantanamo detainees to correctional institutions in the U.S.

Featured speakers:

Major General Paul D. Eaton,

USA (Ret.), a West Point graduate who spent more than 33 years in the U.S. Army. General Eaton most recently served as Commanding General charged with reestablishing Iraqi Security Forces.

Elisa Massimino

CEO, Human Rights First, and one of the nation's foremost national security policy experts.

Harry K. Singletary, Jr.

a former Secretary of the Florida Department of Corrections.

WHERE: FSU, College of Law Rotunda

425 W. Jefferson St., Tallahassee

WHEN: Friday, September 11, 2009 at 12:30 p.m.

Co-hosted by Human Rights First and the National Security Network

Free admission. Open to the public.
Public parking at the Civic Center.

This discussion is part of Florida State University's Human Rights & National Security in the 21st Century lecture series.